

SPRING 2020

Calendar of Events

Wednesday, January 15th, 5:30pm

All The Ways We Said Goodbye*, talk and book signing

Sumter County Museum, McKenzie Hall

Join Team W - Karen White, Beatriz Williams, and Lauren Willig for a lively evening discussing their third collaborative novel. *Books will be available for purchase. Reception to follow. Free and open to the public.

Thursday, January 23rd, 5:30pm

Letters from Anne and Martin*, a theatrical performance

Anne Frank: Private Photo Album*, exhibit opening

Temple Sinai Jewish History Center

Anne Frank Center for Mutual Respect brings us their most requested performance, Letters from Anne and Martin, followed by the opening reception for Anne Frank: Private Photo Album.

RESERVATIONS ARE FULL FOR THIS EVENT

Anne Frank: Private Photo Album*, a traveling exhibit

Thursday, January 23rd to Saturday, February 29th

Emanating from the Anne Frank Center for Mutual Respect this exhibit features more than 70 rarely seen photographs from the Frank family albums. Anne Frank: Private Photo Album will be on display at Temple Sinai Jewish History Center in Ackerman Exhibition Hall during the Center's hours of operation.

*Regular admission applies, school tours are always free but must be scheduled at least 2 weeks in advance

Wednesday, February 19th, 5:30pm

The Antidote for Everything*, talk and book signing

Sumter County Museum, McKenzie Hall

Physician-turned-author Kimmery Martin introduces her second novel again combining the medical intrigue of Grey's Anatomy with the humor, friendship, and suburban drama of Liane Moriarty. Inspired by the real-life experience of a fellow physician, Martin's new novel centers around what happens when a doctor is fired for treating transgender patients.

Books will be available for purchase. Reception to follow. Free and open to the public.

Unforgettable: Celebrating a Time of Life, Hope, and Bravery*, a traveling exhibit

Thursday, February 20th to Saturday, May 16th

Cecil Williams' traveling exhibit Unforgettable: Celebrating a Time of Life, Hope, and Bravery is a collection of forty images providing a rare glimpse of events, portraits, and moments of significant social change during the 1950s through the 1970s. The noble subjects and pioneers captured in Williams' images depict the unforgettable waves of change that impacted the world during that era. On display in McKenzie Hall during the Museum's regular hours of operation. Unforgettable is presented thanks to the South Carolina State Library and the Institute of Museum and Library Services. This exhibit is free and open to the public.

*School tours are always free but must be scheduled at least 2 weeks in advance

The True Wartime Escape: Margret and H.A. Rey's Journey from France*, a traveling exhibit

Thursday, March 26th to Saturday, May 2nd

This traveling exhibit emanates from the Institute for Holocaust Education. It examines the incredible journey made by Curious George's creators, Margret and H.A. Rey, to escape the Nazi invasion of Paris at the start of World War II. On display at Temple Sinai Jewish History Center in Ackerman Exhibition Hall during the Center's regular hours of operation. *Regular admission applies, school tours are always free but must be scheduled at least 2 weeks in advance

INSPIRE!* Sunday, March 29th, Time TBA Decoda Chamber Music Concert

Temple Sinai Jewish History Center

Decoda returns this year for another beautiful chamber music concert as part of Inspire! Festival. The ensemble is a New York-based chamber collective dedicated to bringing meaningful musical experiences to any and all audiences. Ticket information coming soon.

INSPIRE!* Tuesday, March 31st, 6pm Unforgettable, Cecil Williams Talk and Book Signing

Sumter County Museum, McKenzie Hall

We are pleased to present, as part of Inspire! Festival, Mr. Cecil Williams. Williams will join us for a talk about his latest volume Unforgettable, his career and the Civil Rights movement in South Carolina, which he captured poignantly through his photography. Books will be available for purchase. Reception to follow. Free and open to the public.